Judge Burney being indisposed and unable to be present when the district court convened here Monday morning, the local bar and visiting attorneys met for the purpose of electing a special judge, there being eight attorneys present. Out of the eight votes cast, Hon. L. J. Brucks received seven votes as the choice of the lawyers for the position of special judge. Mr. Brucks casting his vote for a brother attorney. Judge Burney is reported to be considerably indisposed, and as he is said to be a rather difficult patient for his physician to keep quiet, it is hardly probable he will be able to be present at this term of the Court. He thinks the people are needlessly alarmed about the drouth, and he is by no means willing to concede any failure of crops this year—even a corn crop. He says corn planted in July will mature before cold weather sets in. In fact, he says he has seen as good crops grown in the fall as he ever saw grown in the spring.

WITH THE DRILLERS.

Considerable activity is in evidence among oil men and the great drilling campaign that has long been expected seems to be developing. The bringing in the Smith-Donaldson well of the Ina group has caused some excitement and will doubtless stimulate drilling. The Smith-Donaldson well, at a depth of 995 feet, is pronounced by experienced oil men as a 50-barrel well—the best that has, thus far, been brought in in this field.

Carson-Smith are the latest among the enthusiasts to enter the Ina field and are working with feverish haste to spud in and it is probable before another month is ushered in they will have a drill on its downward course to the liquid gold that underlies their lease. These gentlemen have acquired leases on 103 acres in the proven territory. Their first well will be located just 300 feet from the Smith-Donaldson well. There is no doubt of their finding oil, as thus far there hasn't been a "duster" struck in the Ina field. The only question is will it equal or surpass the Smith-Donaldson well?

The Arnett Oil Co., successor to Dr. O'Brien, were down approximately 800 feet Wednesday. As the new proposition is in close proximity to the no O'Brien wells now producing there is no fear but another producer will not be brought in. Dr. O'Brien was forced to retire from the oil game on account of failing health.

Drilling is again in active progress at the Kone-Willis well, on the Murphy-Fusselman ranch. This company completed its contract of 3-200 feet, but as the indications were believed favorable, the drill was again put in action and the promoters are still confident of making a paying proposition out of their well. This well is several miles North of the Ina wells, and should it come in as producer, it will greatly extend the field.

The Mid-Kansas, on the Jake Haby place below Dunlay, after passing through what they thought was the Edward's line, went into clay formation, and we understand are shut down waiting for instructions from headquarters. This company, located some six or seven miles North of the Ina wells, encountered some oil, but as it was started as a deep test, did not test out the shallow oil sands.

There is a rumor to the effect that the Williams Oil Co., on the Moebius tract, well shortly resume drilling. It was the want of funds, and not the want of confidence, that caused drilling to cease at this well. Oil men regard the location as very favorable for a good strike, and everyone would like to see the well carried on down. Drilling on this well ceased at around 400 feet.

According to a San Antonio paper, drilling will soon start on the J. A. Blackburn farm, Northeast a couple of miles from the Ina wells, the Ina company to do the drilling. As the leases on this property will expire in a few months and as the location is considered extremely favorable, there is but little doubt that it will be thoroughly exploited before the expiration of the leases.

If the wells now drilling in the Ina territory come in as producers, and no one doubts that they will, then a pipe line will become a necessity to handle the output of the field and doubtless its installation will be the next problem to be solved by oil men.

Those Two Boys Chauncey and Will

I JUST saw a nice write up and Chauncey DePew's picture in all the papers where he told of his first watch which was an Elgin. Said he kept it for years and somebody stole it on a New York Central train. (That's what he gets for riding on his own Railroad.) What does he need a watch for anyway, time means nothing to him. He was in The Follies the other day, and I introduced him and made him make a speech, he said, "I have been entertaining audiences for 91 years and have never found it necessary to use a watch yet." The old rascal hung one on me.

Now the moral of his story as I could gather it is don't have an Elgin Watch, somebody will steal it. So my story is carry 'Bull' Durham, they may borrow it, but nobody will steal it.

Now after looking at this I don't know whether it is an ad for Elgin Watches, Chauncey DePew, The Follies or 'Bull' Durham.

Well, they are all good.

A HONDO BOY WEDS.

Sunday's San Antonio Express carried the following account of the marriage of a former Hondo boy to a popular Eagle Pass girl:
"The marriage of Herman F. Filliman of Eagle Pass and Miss Ruby Ann Leary, daughter of Mrs. Tom Leary, was solemnized Friday evening in the home of the bride's mother, Bishop W. T. Capers officiating.
"The reception rooms were decorated in a color scheme of green and white, a profusion of palms and ferns and white blossoms being used.
At the far end of the living room an improvised altar was formed before a trellis of Southern smilax and white rosebuds, flanked on either side by willow floor baskets filled with Bride's roses. The bride entered with her brother, Rhuel W. Leary of Del Rio. There were no attendants.
"The bride wore an imported gown of heavy ivory satin fashioned along straight lines and embroidered in pearls and crystals. White satin slippers were worn and her flowers were Bride's roses in Colonial bou-quet filled with white chiffon.
"Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The ringshaped wedding cake formed the central adornment for the table encircled by pale green wax tapers in silver holders. Miss Bonnie Hausel-bauer served the ices.
"Mr. and Mrs. Filliman left during the evening for Galveston, the bride wearing a smart ensemble costume of Alice blue, the frock of flat crepe and the wrap of blue jewel cloth.
Hat and accessories in blonde shades were worn. They will be at home in Eagle Pass after May 1."
Mr. Filliman's many Medina County friends join the Anvil Herald in congratulations.

THE COUNTRY NEWS-PAPER.

By Fred Keller Dix.

Up through my office window Came the city's ceaseless din,
I just had paused a moment when the evening mail came in—
Of wars and murders, fires and wrecks—most anything I'd choose.
I cast them one by one aside, and found beneath them all A homely country paper, blurred with ink and somewhat small,
That drew my full attention to its columns up and down—
The little weekly paper that they print in my home town.

This country paper always tells of things in quiet tone
It deals not with the outside world—but topics all its own.
It tells about the folks who visit in and out of town;
That meat is soaring upward and that eggs are going down;
That some old chum is married, or a lifelong friend has died;
The stork has paid a visit and two hearts are swelled with pride.
This paper strikes a tender chord when far away you roam,
For one is always glad to hear what's going on at home.

It's short on punctuation and in spelling, I admit;
Some letters, too, are upside down; it's smeared with ink a bit.
Its face is worn and haggard and the news is mostly late, Sometimes because the make-up man forgets to change the date.
It's welcome to my office, for it brings me joy and rest;
It lets me live an hour each week with friends I've loved the best.
It brings a homelike feeling—and I'm happy to confess I was once their printer's devil — "settin' type and feedin' press."

QUIHI NOTES.

Next Sunday the Sunday school and gentlemen are scheduled for numbers on the program: Declama-tions, Misses Emilia Mussman and

le; Duet, Misses Frieda and Lorine

We take this means of expressing our appreciation of the great kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of our dear little girl, Eleanor Mae. It is at such times as this that one finds words are inadequate to express one's thanks in a fitting manner. We assure every one that their kindness and sympathy will be remembered always.

LADIES "FORTY-TWO" CLUB.

Mesdames P. Jungman, F. H. Schweers and Oscar Schuehle were hostesses to the "Forty-two" Club and guests on Thursday afternoon.

A charmingly fragrant atmosphere was created by the use of a profusion of roses of various colors, in the decorative scheme. Tall crystal vases of these ever popular flowers adorned the centers of the tables and long stemmed buds were plate favors.

Fifteen games of "42" were played. Mrs. Walter Rothe, Mrs. L. J. Brucks and Mrs. Earl Starnes tying for high score of eleven games, low score—two games—fell to Mrs. John Finger.

Mrs. Bowie of Weatherford and Mrs. Becker of Belen, New Mexico were club guests.

At the conclusion of the games the hostesses served delicious angel and devil food cake and chocolate and white ice-cream to the following: Mesdames Garland Martin, Charles Monkhouse, Earl Starnes, W. H. Smith, C. J. Schuehle, F. H. Schweers, Felix Richter, Alice Reinhardt, W. O. Rothe, R. J. Noonan, Andrew Bless, Mimke Muennink, O. H. Miller, Sadie Hutzler, L. E. Heath, John Finger, F. S. ## ELENOR MAE HUDSPETH BURIED

The body of little Elenor Mae Hudspeth arrived on the night train Sunday night from Pittsburgh, Penn., accompanied by the child's parents, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Hudspeth, and little Dorothy Ann.

Funeral services were held at the home of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hudspeth, Monday afternoon and the little body laid to rest in the family burial plot in Ingleside cemetery. Rev. A. M. Foster, pastor of the local Methodist Church, performed the funeral services.

Little Elenor Mae was born July 26, 1922. She died April 16, 1925. Thus the span of her life was less than three short years, and we like to think of her as a budding flower plucked from earth's garden to bloom into loveliness in paradise.

But the stoutest faith vouchsafed to mortals here is not sufficient to spare us the heart-rending anguish of separation and, like Rachel, we all must weep "because they are not." It is then that the sweetest solace one can offer is to mingle the tears of sympathy with those of sorrow and leave the issue with Him whose ways are past finding out, but Who does all things well.

"SAFETY FIRST."

"Safety First," a three act farce comedy, was played to a large audience at the Auditorium Monday night by the Baptist young people.

The comedy was a scream from start to finish and the young people presented their parts well for amateurs. Two juvenile specialties between acts were also good, and the music by Hondo's new band contributed very materially to the pleasures of the evening.

A neat sum was netted for the benefit of the church.

MAY BUILD COURT-HOUSE IN DEVINE

Work has been going on for some time in trying to secure a court house in Devine; but not until the meeting, Thursday night were plans made public. Mr. D. C. Hondo announced that the court had announced a willingness to bear the cost of something like $2,000 or $3,000. Mr. Robertson said they had decided to abandon the idea of the price of lots anywhere in the business center; but that Sec. M. E. DuBose had secured the lot of a good lot, in the business center, one half block of the post-office, not more than $300 or $400. After some discussion it was decided that Devine should build a court house and a committee consisting of W. S. Lilly, E. A. Schott and E. Russell was appointed to make subscriptions. A one story, hollow tile, room large enough to serve as a court house and has been figured by a contractor to cost $2,500. It is wanting a jail and the building of the court house and a new jail at Castroville.

HONDO WINS DISTRICT MEET.

The ninth annual interscholastic league meet was held at Uvalde, Texas, April 17 and 18, 1925, the 21st district.

Medina County carried off the honors by making the highest number of points. Hondo was the victor over all other towns that took part in the events. Following is the standing of the leading competitors:

Hondo, 50 points.
Uvalde, 37 points.
Sabinal, 32 points.
Devine, 27 points.

Dillely won first place in boys debate, and Hondo second.

Pearsall won first place in girls debate and Hondo second.

Essay in Class B School was won by Hondo (Represented by Olga Rothe.)

Tennis Doubles was won by Sabinal; Hondo second.

Tennis Singles was won by Hondo; Carrizo Springs, second.

Pole Vault: Uvalde first; Hondo second.

High Hurdles: Devine first; Hondo second and third.

440 Dash: Devine first; Yancey second; Hondo third.

220 Yard Dash: Eagle Pass first; Devine second; Yancey third; Hondo fourth.

100 Yards Dash: Eagle Pass first; Devine second.

1 Mile Relay: Devine first; Yancey second; Hondo third.

Medina County was able to place a man in every event; that is, Medina County won a place in every event.

You will note that Medina County won places in both literary events as well as athletic events. This is a good indication when schools can win points in both events.

It is desired that a school should be nearly evenly balanced in the different contests.

Hondo School is the Champion of the 21st Interscholastic District for the year 1925 and has been awarded a beautiful cup.

BRIDGE CLUB.

The reception rooms of the pretty L. E. Heath home were thrown open to the members of the Bridge Club and several guests on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Heath and Mrs. L. J. Brucks were hostesses.

Potted geraniums, in full bloom, and ferns were placed to advantage in the decorations of the living and dining rooms, while cut glass baskets and vases of pink roses adorned mantel, piano, buffet and tables, transforming this already beautiful home into a bower filled with the fragrance of spring, the season of roses.

At the conclusion of the games, Mrs. W. H. Smith held high score and was presented with a beautiful rose-filled cut glass basket.

At six o'clock the hostesses served refreshing pineapple sherbert with a cluster of roses as plate favors, angel-food and date cake, to the following: Felix Batot, P. P. Brewster, F. S. Cockrell, Robert Decker, Henry Merriman, O. H. Miller, Fletcher Davis, R. J. Noonan, W. H. Smith, Chas. Monkhouse, Chas. Johnson, Mrs. T. E. Wyatt of Sabinal, and Misses Bess Brucks, Willa Mae Gaines, Gertrude Reily, Lillian Brucks, Clara Decker and Fay Russell.

Outside of a general suspension of business but little observance of San Jacinto Day was in evidence in Hondo. In the afternoon a goodly portion of the people repaired to the fair grounds to witness a quarter mile race between Gold Enamel and Boll Weevil, Gold Enamel taking the race. A game of base ball between the Hondo High School team and the fire boys also furnished amusement to the lovers of the national game. This was the second contest between these two teams, the High School boys taking both games, the one Tuesday by the close score of 10 to 9. As the day's festivities were held as a benefit for the fire company, the gate receipts went to it, and its exchequer was fattened to approximately $106, so everybody regards the day as well spent.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Jungman are just now getting considerable pleasure out of several peonies they have blooming in their yard. What adds to their pleasure is the fact that these flowers had shown but little adaptability to our soil thus far and they had about given up hope of their amounting to much when they began blooming. Mr. and Mrs. Bedmark presented them with the bulbs some years ago, and after being in a moribund state for sometime, this spring are showing vigorous life and are blooming profusely. What makes the peony a particularly valued flower is the fact that unlike the rose the petals remain fresh and pretty for some fifteen or more days following blooming.

What Blanche Sweet Brought Back From Paris

BLANCHE SWEET

OF Russian inspiration is this smart Cossack costume which Blanche Sweet wears in "The Sporting Venus," her forthcoming film. It is fashioned of black broadcloth, with leopard skin collar and border on the new circular skirt. With this costume Miss Sweet carries a novel imported leopard skin purse.

THIS novel "Butterfly Gown" which Miss Sweet wears in "The Sporting Venus" has "wings" colorfully beaded in a brilliant butterfly design, which ends in a train, while the narrow band of black sequin around the hips has two brilliantly colored sequin "folded wings" attached. Double banded shoulder straps of rhinestone ending in studded rhinestone ornaments are attached to the front and back of the gown. Silver cloth tightly fitted to the figure forms the basis of the gown, with a deep flounce of black tulle heavily figured with sequin forming the "folded wings" on the skirt. Rhinestone ornaments at the throat and wrists give a sparkling finish to the costume.

FROM India came the inspiration for this costume, another striking outfit which Miss Sweet wears in "The Sporting Venus." The bodice of lace has a V shaped neck, while the skirt is tightly swathed across the hips in oriental fashion. An oriental turban is worn with this costume.

CONTAMINATED WELLS.

Three wells in a neighboring community are said to have been found contaminated with typhoid fever germs, and use of the water taken from them, for either drinking or culinary purpose advised against until after a thorough boiling. Five cases of typhoid have developed in one family from use of water from one of the wells and another case is traceable to another well.

Dr. W. H. Smith, the County health officer, is planning to test other wells to determine whether any others in that territory are contaminated.

While we are not advised as to the cause of the contamination, it is possibly due to the long drought, and low water in the wells. People can not exercise too much care in selecting their drinking water under such circumstances, as typhoid is transmitted only by taking the germs into the alimentary canal through food or drink.

WHY FAIR EXHIBITS PAY.

We do not like to admit that any one can beat us at what we are trying to do. There are thousands of Southern farmers now trying to grow more cotton on five acres than the Anderson County, Texas, farmer produced last year. They are saying "I am not going to let that fellow beat me, if I can help it." The chances are good that the Anderson County man will not be the champion after this year. When the farmer goes to a fair and sees that some one has raised a better calf or hog or crop of chickens, or has produced a crop that beats his, he feels his pride a bit hurt, if he is the right sort; and right there he determines to see if he can't be a leader in something himself. Fairs, like the school "meets," create a spirit of contest that results in better effort.

—Dr. Will H. Mayes.

MRS. ELIZABETH MUELLER.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mueller, 53, of LaCoste, died at a local hospital Friday night. She had been in San Antonio four days, having come here for medical treatment. She leaves her husband, Joe Mueller; father, Henry Keller; two brothers, Frank Keller and H. W. Keller, all of LaCoste. The funeral will be held in LaCoste Sunday.—Sunday's Express.

IN CASTROVILLE.

In quaint old Castroville we've bided for a time,
(The beautiful Medina floweth by.)
Dream-town unique; inspiring thoughts sublime,
Awakening memories that can never die;
How strangely past and present seem to meet!
I think we'd hardly be surprised to see Great Goethe and Schiller coming down the street—
Old world, new world commingled so to be.

In quaint old Castroville the maids are fair,
The blended loves of dear Alsace-Lorraine;
Such eyes—blue, glorious brown, and faces winsome, ways beyond compare;
The men so manly, gentle, true, and kind,
And could more charming matrons e'er be found?
The smiling little children, too, we find
Make bright the day and cheer the daily round.

In quaint old Castroville the folks are loyal, too,
And when war's harsh alarm shook the sky,
Her boys upbore the red and white and blue,
And bravely went to conquer or to die;
We're proud of them—oh, some came home no more,
Their so loved forms we nevermore shall see,
But over there on that far distant shore
They won a glorious immortality.

In dear old Castroville we've passed the days,
(The beautiful Medina floweth by.)
The bells of old Saint Louis ring to praise
The Mighty Father of all towns on high;
Congenial habitat of artist, saint,
Dream-town unique, poetic rendezvous,
New world, old world, enchanting quaint;
Ah, Castro builded better than he knew!

—Homer Magee in LaCoste Ledger.
